CLASHING OVER A POINT OF PAR-LIAMENTARY COURTESY.

The Joint Committee Which Visited New York Is Angry Because the Senate Took Action Over Its Head -Liberty Island, However, Is Believed to Be in No Peril.

INTEGRAL TO THE WORLD ! WASHINGTON, March 27 .- An extremely ate situation has arisen during the past twenty-four hours between the Joint Comstee on Immigration and the two houses of Congress, but fortunately Liberty Island is in no way imperilled. It is probable that the result will be a nullification of the action of the Senate yesterday in passing Senator McPherson's resolution to remove the naval magazine from Ellis Island, but to-day's developments show conclusively that Liberty Island has been saved and that The Wonzo's victory is complete.

Benator McPherson's resolution, as originally printed in The Wonzo, was referred to the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, of which Mr. McPherson is a member and Mr. Cameron Chairman. Mr. Chandler, the Chairman of the Joint Committee on Immigration, is also a member of the Naval Committee. Acting under instructions from the Naval Committee Senator McPherson and passed unantmously:

The resolution was rushed through, time only being taken to read the amendments proposed by the Naval Committee and that of Mr. Hiscock appropriating $75,000 to fit Ellis Island for an immigrant depot.

Benator Eustis and one or two other members of the Joint Committee were in their seats in the Senate when the resolution was passed. Either they did not fully underlying the senate when the resolution was passed. Either they did not fully underlying the senate with the Senate when the resolution was passed. Senator Eustis said: "The point 1 made in Committee was not against the selection of Ellis Island, but against taking the quetion out of the hands of the Special Committee appointed by the Senate to investigate it. Acting under that authority we

Gen. Batcheler, who was acting Secretary of the Treasury to-day, told The amend Senator MicPherson's resolution so as to make it cover the immigration department as well as the removal or the powder magazine from Fills Island, he did not know it; and he entirely discredited the report to that effect.

Mr. Weber Makes a Proposal to the Emigration Board.

Superintendent of Immigration and Assistant Bupt. O'Bierne entered the Board room and, leaving a sealed communication, relired without waiting for it to be read. The natural conclusion of those who witnessed the scene was that this communication must be from Necretas y Windom in reference to the without wait the chamber. It was observed, however, that the broad brow of President Ringway clouded ominously as he perused the document. Boston, March 27, Johnny Griffin and Frank Steele fought for a purse to-night at the Faruell Athletic Club. They were twoounce gloves. Griffin weighed 120 pounds. ann Steele 125 pounds. The only curiosity was to see in how many rounds Griffin would finish Steele. In the first round the latter had the best or it, but he was clearly out of the hight afterwards. Griffin landed on Steele sheart, neck, law and eyes freely, and battered him into a melancholy condition. In the eighth round Steele decided to quit, John L.
